

7th Global Tape Forum, Global Test Methods Committee Meeting & 2024 China Adhesive Tape Forum rescheduled to April 24 to 26, 2024, still in Shanghai

GLOBAL

News Release, 12 September 2023, Beijing, China—At the Adhesive and Tape Annual Conference just concluded last week, the China Adhesives and Tape Industry Association (CATIA) promoted and released the 7th Global Tape Forum/Global Test Methods Committee Meeting & 2024 China Adhesive Tape Forum, which is scheduled in Shanghai from 24 to 26 April 2024. The news of this forum has received much attention and inquiries from Chinese enterprises, and a large number of entrepreneurs have expressed their willingness to support fully and participate in this global event.

Until now, the following companies have confirmed their sponsorship for the forum:

- Dow Chemical (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Diamond sponsor
- Tex Year Group, sponsor of conference bags
- Wing Tai (Zhongshan) Co., Ltd., sponsor of notebook and pens
- Dongguan Kejian Instrument Co., Ltd., sponsor of seat back covers

Furthermore, a total of 26 exhibition booths have been reserved (marked in green in the floor plan below) by raw material suppliers and tape producers. The remaining 58 exhibition booths are still available (in white in the floor plan).

We look forward to more professionals providing high-quality technical presentations to the forum, to share and exchange with conference attendees from various countries and regions. We will soon establish a working group to evaluate the topics and abstracts of presentations submitted to us and to decide which ones are in line with the conference theme.

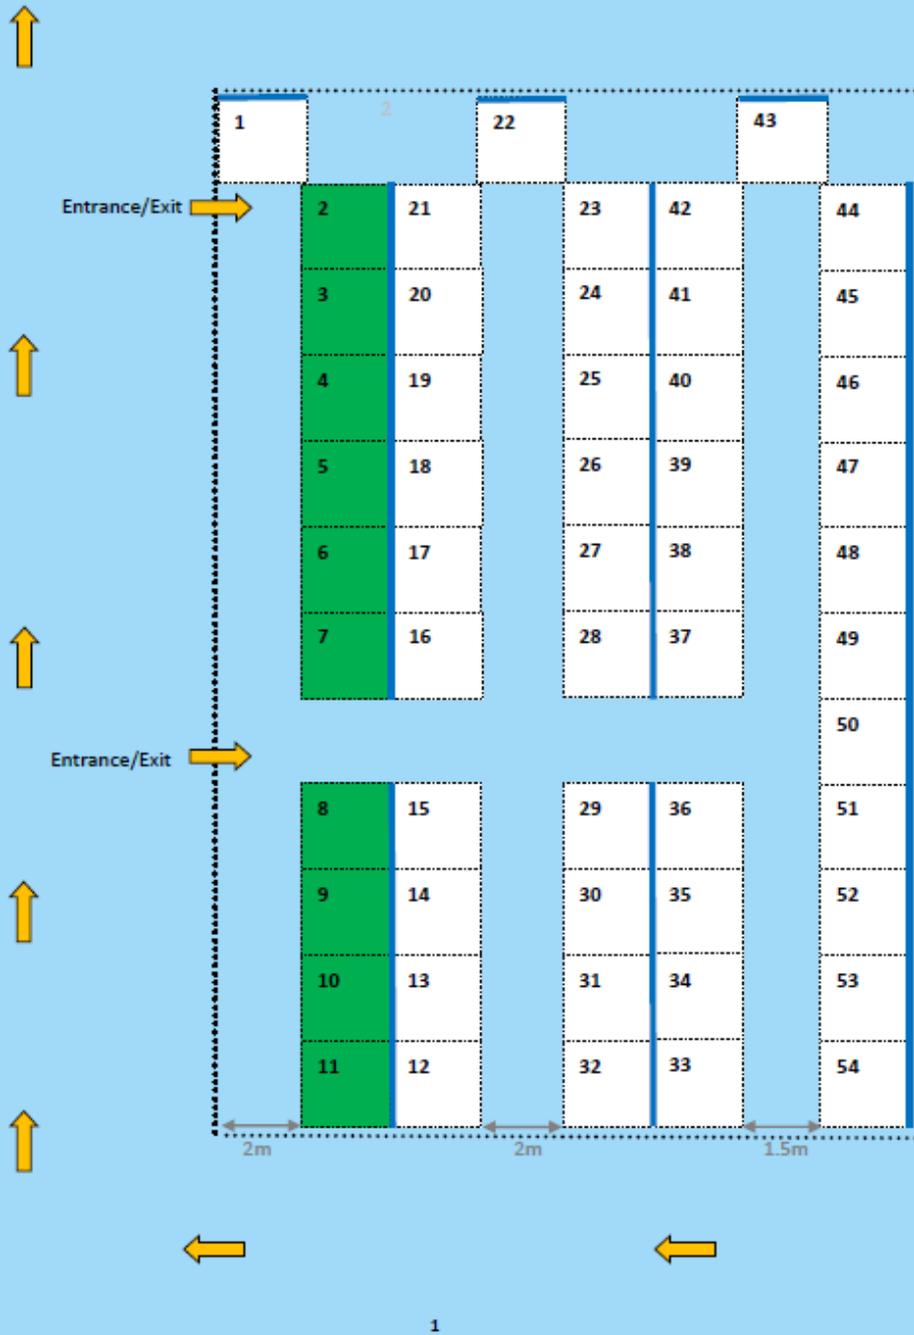

Looking forward to your participation and cooperation,

China Adhesives and Tape Industry Association
(CATIA)
